The Safety Warehouse

Background:

Blueprint Employment and Training Inc (Blueprint Inc) is a not for profit registered training organisation specialising in training in warehousing and load shifting equipment. Since establishment in 2005 Blueprint Inc has delivered a range of training projects for both the State and Australian Government. In addition Blueprint Inc provides training to small, medium and large companies in Loadshifting and non accredited safety training.

To further the employment focus of the organisation Blueprint Inc has commenced a Social Enterprise project "The Safety Warehouse".

The Safety Warehouse Project:

The Safety Warehouse is in its early stages of operation and has two key objectives:

1. To establish a warehouse facility to supply safety clothing and associated equipment to government funded projects, businesses and individuals and to
2. Create employment and training opportunities for women in the Logan area facing barriers to employment

Products and Services:

The Safety Warehouse can supply a range of safety clothing and equipment suitable for work in landscaping, construction, warehousing, manufacturing, security and the hospitality industry.

Discount is available for multiple orders and an on-site fitting service (for Brisbane, Logan and Ipswich) can be arranged on request. The Safety Warehouse can provide a range of safety clothing to meet projects needs for both short term and long term projects.

For more information about this project contact – Angie Rue or David Pearson on 07 3299 3312.

This project is supported by funding from the Australian Government.
